

THE DIVISION OF ENGLISH ANNOUNCES

The 2016-2017 Composition and Literature Program Writing Contest

The annual Composition and Literature Program Writing Contest honors excellence in undergraduate writing by offering awards for essays demonstrating outstanding craft and critical complexity.

The essays, written for English composition or literature courses represent a variety of genres, from personal narratives, to research essays, to literary criticism.

Winners can receive prizes of vouchers valued at up to AED 500, and an official certificate of recognition.

Submission Guidelines

1. Your essay title must appear on both your cover sheet and at the top of your first page
2. Your cover sheet must include the following:
  - a. Your title
  - b. Your name and student ID #
  - c. Your instructor's name and course code for which the essay was written (For example, ENGL 101N)
3. Neither your name nor that of your instructor should appear anywhere in your submission other than on the cover sheet and permission form
4. The permission form (below) must be completed and signed by you and your instructor. The permission form must be turned in with the essay in order for the essay to be eligible for the contest.
