

Adjunct Instructor in Middle Eastern Studies

The School of Arts and Sciences at the American University in Dubai is currently accepting applications for part-time Adjunct Instructors to begin teaching in Fall 2021. The area of specialization is Middle Eastern Studies or a related field.

The successful candidate will have:

- Ph.D. or an equivalent terminal degree in a related field, from a western accredited institution of higher education is required.
- Solid teaching experience at the University level as well as a record of professional achievement is desired.
- Academic qualifications and/or specialization in teaching [specialization].
- Ability to demonstrate significant potential and promise of teaching effectiveness.
- Excellent English written and oral communication skills.

Courses to be taught include, among others:

- The Qur'an: Text, History, and Meaning
- Cultures of the Middle East
- Introduction to Islam
- Introduction to Middle East History
- Islamic Civilizations

Successful candidates will need to provide original academic transcripts.

The university has flexible timings including morning, afternoon and evening classes.

These positions are part-time and suit those candidates already resident and under sponsorship in Dubai.

Applications will be accepted and evaluated until this position is filled.

Interested applicants must submit the following requirements via email to facultyrecruitment@aud.edu.

- Cover letter
- Updated CV
- Statement of teaching philosophy
- Contact information of three (3) academic/professional references

Alternatively, applicants can submit their application materials to the following postal address:

Faculty Recruitment

The American University in Dubai
P.O. Box 28282, Dubai, U.A.E.

No telephone calls please.

While we thank all applicants for their interest, only those under consideration will be contacted for a follow-up interview.